

NorAlumni

Department Director Bjørn Tore Kjellemo
Research Council of Norway

Why NorAlumni in China?

- China is an important partner for Norway in research and business
- Need to bridge distance, cultural and language differences
- Goal: maintain and expand networks
- Promote contact between Chinese who know Norway and Norwegians who know China

What is NorAlumni

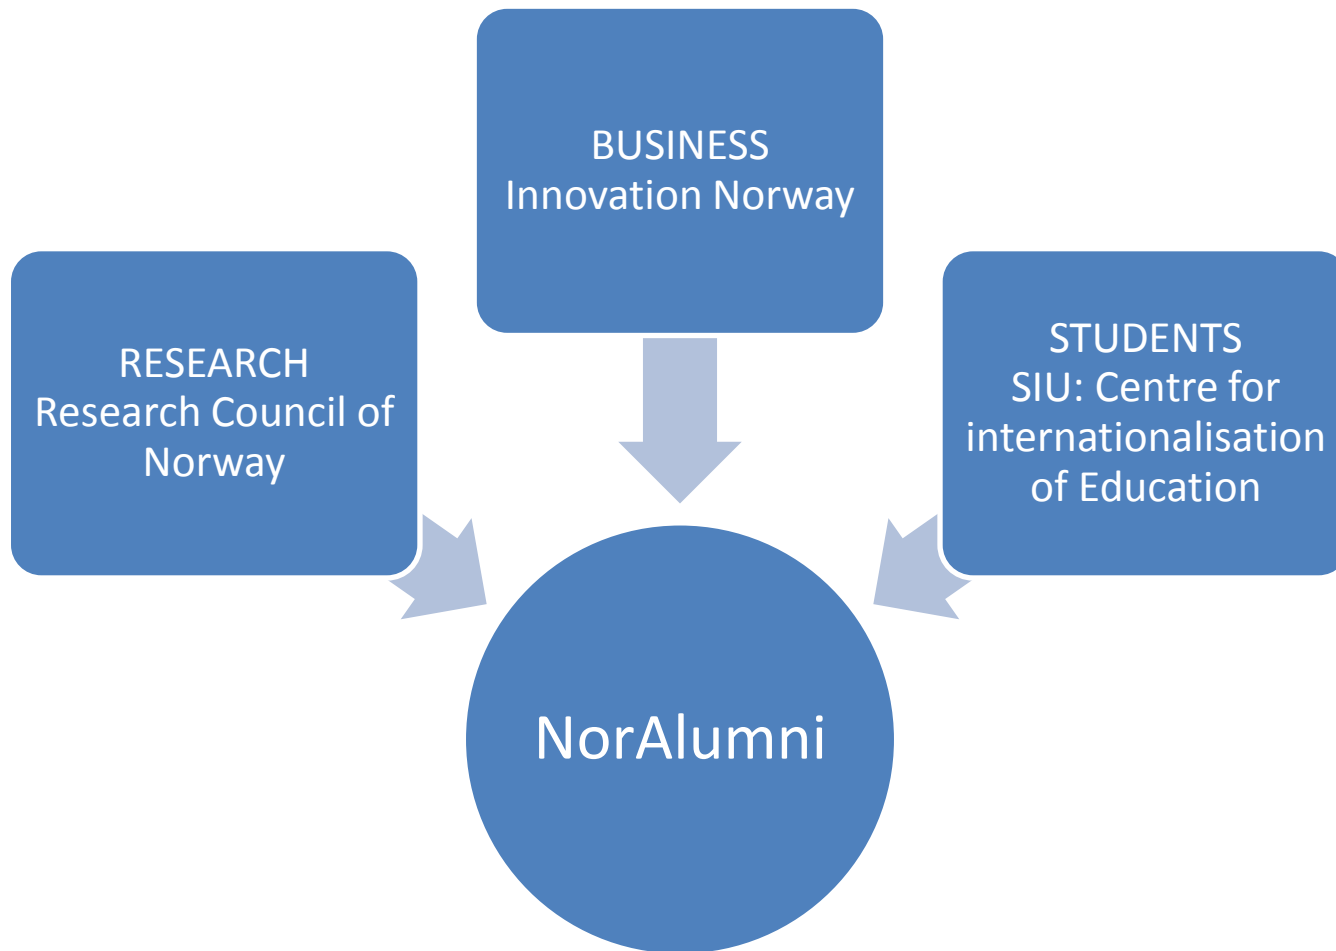

What:

- a series of networks (now: China, Japan)
- membership based - register online

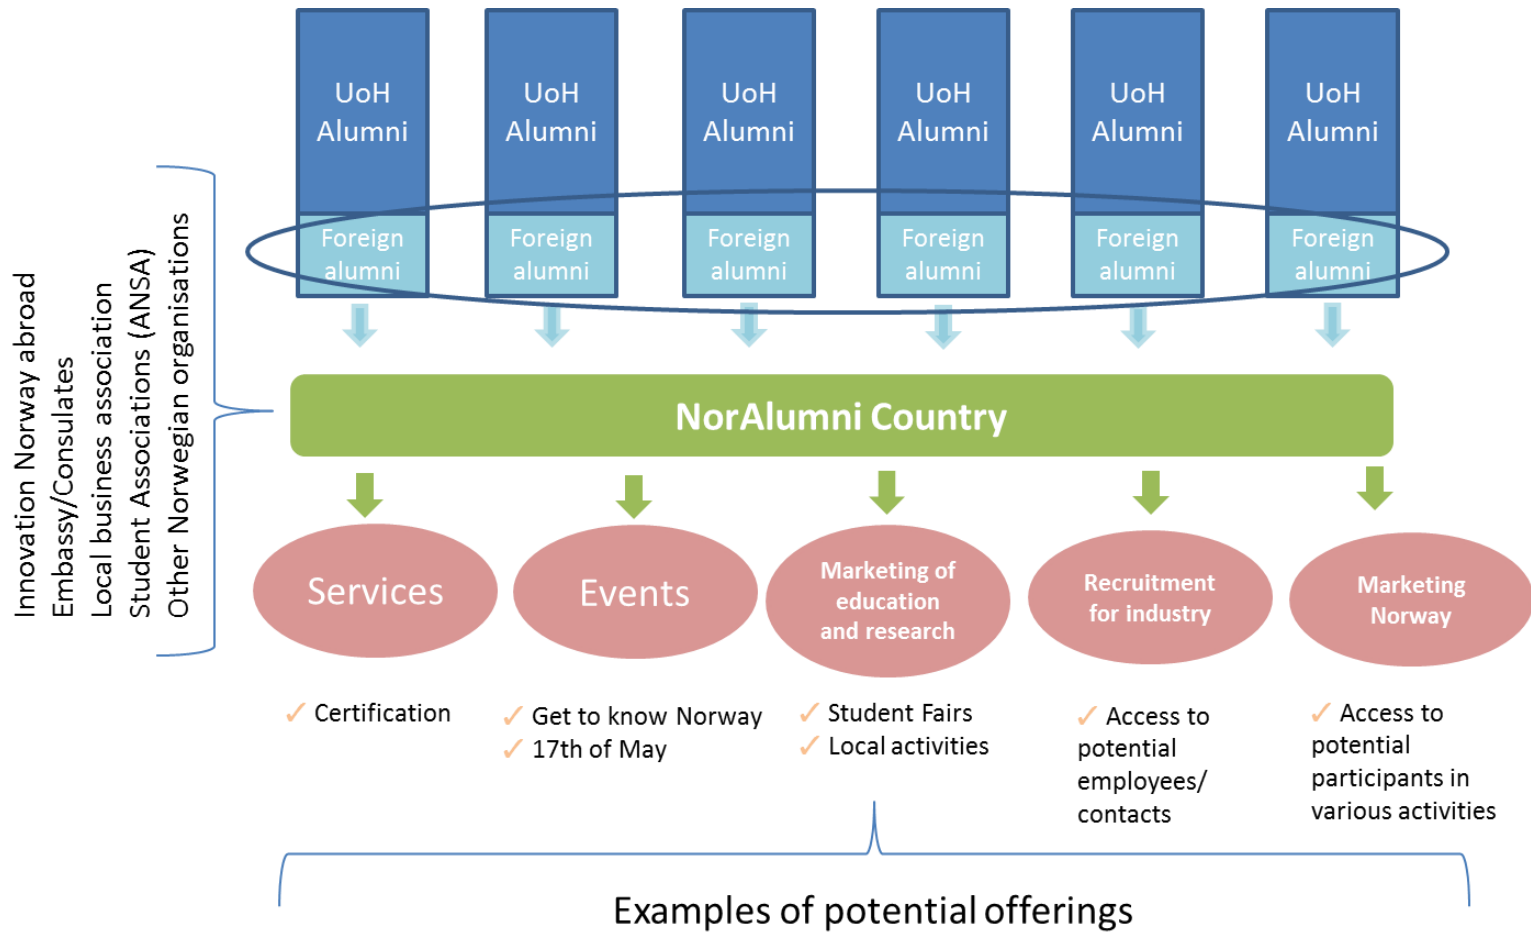

Where:

- www.noralumni.no

Who runs NorAlumni

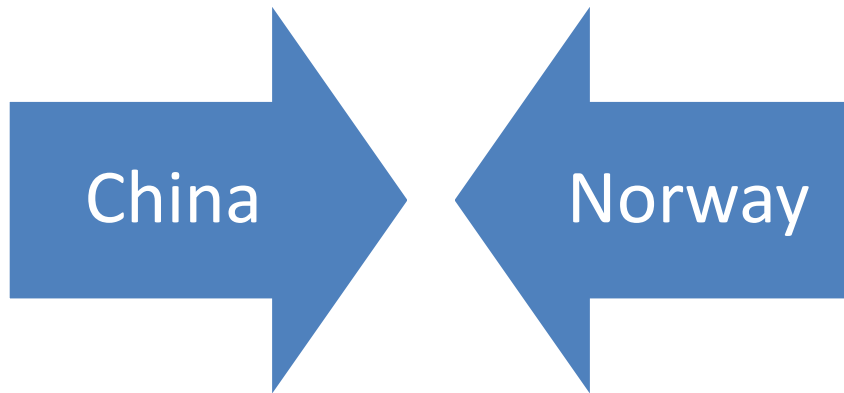

NorAlumni vs. HEI alumni

NorAlumni

- a platform to strengthen ties

- Chinese in Norway
- Norwegians in China
- Research cooperation
- Business cooperation
- Student mobility

NorAlumni China

- Launched in 2010
- Web page/database
- Social platforms?
Plans for LinkedIn/Weibo

- Events:
«Getting to Know Norway»
- Secretariat at Beijing
Embassy

Links / resources

Embassy in Beijing

Norwegian government's official site concerning China.

Consulate General Guangzhou

The official site of the Consulate General in Guangzhou.

Consulate General Shanghai

The official site of the Consulate General in Shanghai.

The Research Council of Norway

The primary agency for funding research and research-based innovation in Norway.

Innovation Norway

Promotes nationwide industrial development by contributing towards innovation, internationalisation, and promotion.

Abelia

A trade and employers association associated with Norway's largest employers' organisation, NHO (Confederation of Norwegian Business and Industry).

China Scholarship Council

Provides financial assistance to Chinese citizens studying abroad and to the foreign citizens studying in China.

Chinese Professionals in Norway

A membership-based organisation that facilitates relations between China and Norway and their peoples.

NorAlumni China Announcement

Thank you for your great support and enthusiasm to NorAlumni China since its launch last September. We've now have 260 members registered in the network which is a good start to make it up and running. We would like to inform you that Kari Kveseth, Counsellor of Science and Higher Educatio...

Read more

Not a member? Register now!

More students to China!

Norway's Minister of Industry and Commerce thinks that more Norwegian students should study in China.

Read more

DNV (Det Norske Veritas) featured at NorAlumni China event 16 March

Representatives from DNV will lead the programme at the first NorAlumni China event in Oslo.

Read more

Welcome to Norway! 挪威欢迎你! event in Trondheim

What is it like to be a student in Norway when you come from China, a land some distance away and culturally very different? And why do Norwegian companies that do business in China look to these students for expertise and then cultural guidance? NorAlumni China, the NTNU Alumni Association and the Chinese Student Association in Trondheim joined forces to address these and other questions for Chinese students at the first Welcome to Norway get together on the 27th of January.

Read more

Not a member? – Register now!

Events

NorAlumni China Stakeholder Meeting

In order to make the NorAlumni China a valuable tool for its members and partners to improve their communication and promote their social and profession interests, we are planning different events during the year. At first, we are planning to organize a meeting at...

Beijing, China - 01 Jun - 30 Jun

Welcome to www.noralumni.no

Contact

Beijing Embassy:

Thomas L. Hansteen

Thomas.Loge.Hansteen@mfa.no

Research Council of Norway:

Aleksandra W. Haugstad

awh@rcn.no